

2019 Summer Camps (July/August) for the children of UN Geneva staff organized by MJSR

5 days of activities between lakes, cities and mountains proposed by the MJSR.

Together, the children explore, discover or rediscover sports, fun, cultural and connecting activities! Every day is different: activities on water, in the forest, in the mountains, but also urban days with visits to museums. Throughout the week, an animation team (1 adult for every 5 children) accompanies the children.

Week proposed by the MJSR and its Animascience program (exact schedule to be announced later):

- One day on the water in Geneva: rafting on the Arve or canoeing on the Rhône + Animascience recreational-scientific workshop on the theme of water. Lunch picnic taken on the banks of the Rhône.
- One day of sensations in St-Cergue: cani-hiking (3-4 km walk depending on the children's aptitude with sled dogs) + archery on target and 3D course in the forest with 21 stations. Lunch picnic taken in the middle of the forest.
- One cultural day in Lausanne: guided tour and activities at the Inventions Area + visit to the Olympic Museum. Lunch picnic by the lake.
- One day of fun in the French Jura: tobogganing on rails and/or adventure course (depending on the age of the children) in the middle of the forest. Lunch picnic taken in the middle of nature.
- One Chaplin day in Vevey: visit of the Chaplin Museum + visit of Vevey at the time of the Winegrowers' Day. Picnic or lunch taken in Vevey.

 - ✓ sunscreen + lipstick + sunglasses
 - ✓ cap or hat
 - ✓ any medicines (with instructions and dosage) that the child should take

Registration conditions and important information:

- Registration is only done via the website.
- Registrations are taken into account in the order of arrival.
- A minimum of 10 children per week is required; if this minimum is not reached by May 17 (for the July week) or by 14 June (for the August week), the programme will be cancelled and the CHF 650.00 refunded within 20 days.
- Any cancellation by a parent must be communicated to the MJSR: Isabelle Mayor, 079 409 28 34 or animation@mjsr.ch.
- In case of cancellation by a parent, or dismissal of a child due to inappropriate behaviour disrupting the group activities, no refunds apply.
- Participants must follow the instructions given by the instructors and comply with usual rules of safety and caution.
- Each participant must be insured against sickness and accident and have liability insurance for any damage he may cause to third parties for movable and immovable objects.
- The facilitation team takes all useful decisions concerning the participants, especially if emergency measures are required due to their state of health. In the event of disagreement on this principle as well as in the event of particular problems concerning the health or behaviour of the child, the legal representative must inform the MJSR: Isabelle Mayor, 079 409 28 34 or animation@mjsr.ch.
- We decline any responsibility in case of theft, loss or damage to the participant's personal belongings.
- Electronic games, iPod, MP3, etc., which are expensive and can disrupt group activities, are not allowed; for those who would not follow this instruction, the organizer declines any responsibility in the event of loss, theft or damage.
- The MJSR also declines any responsibility for damage caused by a participant, voluntarily or involuntarily, to objects or third parties.
- Any malicious taking and/or use, in particular of videos or photos, by the participant, will be reported to the juvenile-competent authorities.
- Objects likely to affect the physical safety of participants are not allowed (e.g. knives) and will be immediately confiscated by the animation team.
- Our animation teams will have professional telephone access in case of difficulties.
- For any possible dispute, Swiss law is applicable, the place of jurisdiction being Geneva.
